

High Court: BMC Cannot Take Possession Of Priyadarshini Park Without Due Process

May 04, 2018, 07:06 IST | Agencies

In April last year, the civic body had passed an order, seeking to take possession of the park and to evict the Malabar Hill Citizens' Forum

Representational Image

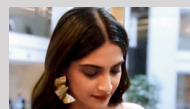

The Bombay High Court yesterday said the Brihanmumbai Municipal Corporation (BMC) cannot take possession of the 20-acre Priyadarshini Park in south Mumbai without following the due process of law.

In April last year, the civic body had passed an order, seeking to take possession of the park and to evict the Malabar Hill Citizens' Forum. The forum had approached HC challenging the BMC's order.

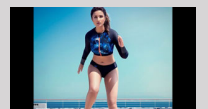

A division bench of Justices A S Oka and Riyaz Chagla yesterday opined that the impugned order was passed without following due process of law. "The Worst Crime! Alcoholic brutally murders wife by inserting broken bottle in

Sonam Kapoor wedding: Anil, Harshvardhan reached out to this designer

Pa su sv

follow due process of law before passing such orders," the court said. The bench quashed and set aside the order and disposed of the petition.

